STARJAM'S FOUNDERS

In 2002, StarJam Co-Founders, Julie & Roy Bartlett had a flash of inspiration. They saw how people with disabilities, usually recipients of charitable services, could become inspirational role models for our society. Through events such as "Stars Thru Their Eyes" StarJam provides opportunities for young people with disabilities to express their unique talents and gifts. The result is inevitably very moving and highly inspirational.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR SPONSOR

Endeavour Charitable Trust is a gaming trust only a few years old, but very proud of our record of supporting worthy charitable causes. Our policy is to search the community for opportunities to multiply the numbers of people we can help. We are delighted to extend our assistance to StarJam again this year by being principal sponsor of "Stars Thru their Eyes 2004".

August 2004

Meet the stars of "Stars Thru Their Eyes 2004"

Ese Aumelsulusulu, 16, is a student at James Cook High School and is very passionate about music and has played in every StarJam event to date. He also loves computers and travelling. He wants to be a mobility instructor.

Samantha Kalolo is 14 and a student at St Mary's College. She has grown up in a musical family and is a beautiful singer. She also plays piano and flute. Her 'fave' subjects at school are maths, business studies and music and she wants to be a lawyer.

Dean Morath, 25 has a wide range of interests including motor racing, rugby, movies and hanging out with friends. He also is an awesome drummer and has been playing since he was 2.

Sherilyn Hagan is 12 and attends Rosehill Special School. She loves all animals including dinosaurs and is a prolific writer and artist producing wonderful poetry and beautiful drawings. She is interested in a career, which would include graphic animation work.

Daniel Gourlay who attends Takapuna Grammar School is 20. He is a talented dancer and many of you will have seen him dance in "Stars Thru Their Eyes 2003". He loves ten pin bowling and golf. He's a big fan of 'Coronation Street'.

Kimberley McLean, also attends Takapuna Grammar School and is 17. She loves listening to music and watching TV. She put a new spin on dancing for many of last year's "Stars Thru Their Eyes" audience, who had previously not seen wheelchair dancers.

We have great pleasure in inviting you to

Celebrity Auction

Peter Jackson – Lord of the Rings "Return of the King" Poster featuring Gollum.

Personally autographed by Peter Jackson, Fran Walsh and Barrie Osborne. This poster is one of only six of its kind signed by these three 2004 Oscar winners.

Tom Cruise – "The Last Samurai" Autographed Coffee Table Book.

Packed full of pictures of Tom Cruise, and the making of this epic movie, which was shot in New Zealand. This copy is personally signed by Tom Cruise.

Lucy Lawless – "Xena Warrior Princess" costume.

This stunning costume includes the Warrior Princess's boots as well, and is the only Xena costume Lucy has donated to a charitable organisation for auction.

Chris Lewis and John McEnroe – Autographed Photograph.

This magnificent photograph is a one only and is personally autographed by John and Chris. It was taken at the 1983 Wimbledon Singles Final which stamped Chris Lewis as the best New Zealand tennis player since Anthony Wilding.

Martin Crowe – Autographed Cricket Bat.

Rated as one of New Zealand's finest batsmen, his hallmarks were grace and skill. This bat is number 83 of only 99. It commemorates Martin's finest career moment when he made the highest test score by a New Zealander of 299 against Sri Lanka in 1991. The bat is signed by both Martin Crowe and Sir Donald Bradman, the only other batsman to end a test innings on 299.

StarJam's Mission

To be the leading and most innovative catalyst facilitating a positive societal change in attitude toward people with disabilities.

StarJam's Vision

A world where people with disabilities are not only successfully and fully integrated into our communities but are prized, respected and sought after for their unique talents and gifts, providing the community with confidence, compassion and inspiration.

What others have said about StarJam

"Thanks for letting me be involved in your StarJam, a great and inspirational day. I was especially grateful for the way in which you successfully integrate all forms of disability."

Mark Inglis, Paralympian and Adventurer

"Watching young people be the best they can be is the ultimate inspiration. StarJam creates exactly that special environment where not only do they become the best they can be, but they inspire so many others."

Martin Crowe, Legendary Cricket Star

"Once again, StarJam gives these wonderful young people a fantastic opportunity to showcase their many and varied talents and to have their own star shine even brighter than usual."

Suzy Cato, Children's TV Presenter
